

CORRIGENDA

In the Bulletin of Tibetology Vol. 42 (1 and 2) in the article Tibetan masters and the formation of the sacred site of Tashiding some points were overlooked by the authors Mélanie Vandenhelsken and Hissey Wongchuk which were later discovered and discussed by all authors involved. The results of these discussions are the following corrections:

Page 76, fn 60 should begin with: As Mullard has already mentioned (2005b, p.37, fn 18),

Page 77, fn 61 should have included reference to Mullard 2005b, p. 39, fn 30, and fn 62 should have included reference to Mullard 2005a, p.76, fn 68.

Page 79, fn 76 should have mentioned that the transliteration given in that footnote and the translation (on the same page) had also been made by Saul Mullard.

ANNOUNCEMENT: EMSCAT

Founded in 1970, Études mongoles et sibériennes, centrasiatiques et tibétaines (EMSCAT) is the oldest currently published journal dealing with the Mongol world and surrounding areas in western Asia. In 1976, EMSCAT expanded its coverage to include Siberia, and in 2004, Central Asia and Tibet. It is EMSCAT's intention to provide a forum for scholarship on cultural issues by both established scholars and young researchers new to the field. The editorial line encompasses regular issues, monographs, and comparative thematic issues often produced by guest editors. The journal is published annually.

From now on, EMSCAT will appear solely in an on-line format. EMSCAT is hosted by Revues.org, the federation of on-line journals concerning the social and human sciences. Several back issues of EMSCAT are already freely available online, while the others are slated for release in the coming year. There is a three-year moving wall between the publication date of the most recent issue (n° 38-39, 2008) and when it will appear on-line. For access to the journal please visit: <http://emscat.revues.org>

We hope you will enjoy reading the volumes 32; 35 and 36-37.
