Notes to Contributors

Manuscripts should be typed double-spaced on A4 paper with a 4 cm margin on all four sides. The top copy should be submitted and photo/ carbon copy retained by the author. The author should underline nothing except words which are to be italicised. Notes and references should be typed double-spaced on separate pages and will be included at the end of the article. The text should refer to notes numbered consecutively throughout the article, using raised numbers; bibliographical references should be cited in the text by the author's last name, date of publication, and page number, e.g., (Bista 1965: 105) or if the author's name is mentioned in the text, by the date and page reference only, e.g., (1965: 105). Entries in the references should be in alphabetical and chronological order of authors. They should include the details in the following order: name of the author(s) - surname first, date, title name of the periodical, volume number (Arabic numberals to be used throughout), pagination (for articles in periodicals and books with several authors), place of publication (and name of the publisher for a book). Examples of the style to be used are as follows:
