Editorial Policy

Contributions to Nepalese Studies publishes articles on Nepal focussed on the following areas:

art and archaeology, history, historical-cultural forms; religion; folk studies, social structure, national integration, ethnic studies, population dynamics, institutional processes, development processes, applied linguistics and sociolinguistic studies;

study of man, environment, development and geo-political setting of the Indus-Brahmaputra regions.

Papers, review articles and short reviews of new books on Nepal are welcome from both Nepali and foreign contributors. Articles should be original and written in English or Nepali.

The Editorial Board reserves the right to edit, moderate or reject the articles submitted.

The published articles are remunerated, but Centre for Nepal and Asian Studies retains the copyright on all articles published. Contributors will be given a copy of the journal and fifteen copies of offprints.

Opinions expressed in the articles or reviews are the authors' own and do not necessarily reflect the views of the publisher or the Editorial Board.
