NOTES TO CONTRIBUTORS

The European Bulletin of Himalayan Research welcomes for consideration manuscripts and short notices dealing with any of the following topics:

1. Topical reports on ongoing, or recently completed, research projects.
2. Information about archives with literary, historical, archaeological, ethnographic, botanical, etc. materials collected in the Himalayan region.
3. Reviews of books on the Himalayas, including books published in Nepal, India, Pakistan and China which because of poor distribution may be inadequately known in Europe.
4. Current political developments in Nepal, India, Pakistan and China and the implications of these developments for research carried out by European scholars.
5. News about recent or forthcoming conferences, and on funding opportunities for European scholars working in the Himalayas as well as for scholars from the Himalayan region itself to visit Europe.

Manuscripts should not exceed 5,000 words (ca. 20 pages) in length. All contributions will be published in English. Anything submitted in English by a non-native speaker will be copy-edited in Paris or London.

Contributors are invited to submit their articles as hard copy and possibly on disk. (If your article is sent on disk, please also send hard copy.) All formats are acceptable. If your article is not on disk, please type it boldly, in a large font, and avoid hand-written additions to facilitate scanning.

Please submit your articles with notes attached at the end of your contribution, don't use footnotes at the end of the page. Non-English words should be underlined or written in italics throughout the text. The titles of books etc. cited should be written in italics. Titles of articles should be in plain text within quotation marks, together with the title of their source (book or journal) in italics, e.g.

Bista, Dor Bahadur. 1991. Fatalism and Development. Nepal's struggle for Modernization. Calcutta: Orient Longman.

Quigley, Declan. 1987. "Ethnicity Without Nationalism: The Newars of Nepal." In: European Journal of Sociology XXVIII, pp. 152-70.

The deadline for submissions for our tenth issue is October 31, 1995. Anything received after that date will go into the eleventh issue, expected in summer, 1996.

The views expressed by individual contributors are their own and do not represent those of the editorial board.
